WE, the

in order to express our pride in the present student government and our hope for its future, dedicate this book to the STUDENT GOVERNMENT OF HIRSCH.

The power of self government has been vested in us, the students, who have been found worthy of this honor. As citizens of Hirsch, we elect our representatives and vote upon our laws. Thus the wel-

As you leave Hirsch

The opportunity to say a few words about the young men and women who are leaving Hirsch is to me always a great pleasure. All of us have a deep and abiding interest in both of the classes that complete their courses in this year of 1939. In retrospect, there runs through our minds the years they have been with us, their problems, their plans, their friendships, and their ideals. It is with a thrill of pride that we see them ready to step into larger fields of service, but we realize that they have real responsibilities ahead of them in the world of tomorrow.

These graduates of ours, approach a new day in more than one sense. They will go forth as pioneers, for it is evident that society is facing an unexplored frontier where new opportunities must be discovered. We are going through a period when the character of our youth is on trial; their faith in democratic ideals is being put to a test. There is no doubt in the minds of those who know them that these graduates of our high school, trained in the eternal principles of democracy, will gladly accept the challenge.

In their hearts is the faith that the America in the building will be far better than the old, that there are still countless treasures for the ambitious, that with the future lies not the death of our civilization, but the rebirth.

ARTHUR M. NICHELSON

WE PRESENT OUR PRINCIPAL

AM Michelson.

To the students of Hirsch, however, he needs no introduction for he is the most famous man here. During our four years at school we have turned consistently to him for help. In the future we can turn to his heartening words.

Step into the office where every one is so very busy. Where the archives of Hirsch are at the disposal of all. Where Mrs. Kuehn works diligently over records; and, also, takes care of the technical details of the principal. Where the switchboard operator watches the design of bright lights playing before her and magically brings rooms within hearing distance of one another. Where Miss McManus busies herself with the mail, and Mrs. Stapleton, the true friend, helps out the befuddled freshmen. Where notices pour in at the last minute and secretaries have to speed up their work. Where everything seems like a mad-house but is actually the height of efficiency.

COUNSELLING (Bottom): Mr. Meyer Nathan, Mr. Russell McNally, Miss Isabelle Fitzsimmons, Miss Georgia Allen, Beth Koch, Mr. William Kooistra, Miriam Davidson, Mrs. Ethyl Davison, Warren Wahlberg, Walter Makir, Elaine Ackley.

Step into the office and watch the school world go by.

Sleepy eyed teachers meander in in the morning and half heartedly sign the time sheet. Over in front of Mr. Nicholson's office sits a very patient and very frightened boy, nervously twisting his handkerchief. Beside him sprawls an impatient club worker, anxious to consult his principal upon some very important matters. Every now and then, a teacher's messenger whizzes by on an important mission, or an efficient looking girl mails cut slips. A pig-tailed, bespectacled freshie stares wide-eyed at busy Miss Hurney. And at long last, teachers rush happily out at the end of the day.

TO THE FIRST LADY OF HIRSCH . . .

we say, "Thank you," . . . for the guidance you gave us . . . your willingness to listen to our minor problems . . . your toleration of our foolishness and your helpfulness in our plight . . . and for always putting Hirsch and its welfare before everything else.

THEY ALWAYS GO FROM COVER TO COVER

WAS IT READ?

We're referring to last night's assignment, and if it wasn't you'd better hustle into the library. There, without any difficulty, you will probably find the book of your need, but if you don't, there's a good-natured group of librarians ready to help you do just that. Each one knows just what the library contains and could probably lead you to your book blind-folded.

THE SIGHT SAVING CLASS

Some of the brightest students at Hirsch have their headquarters in Room 215, where mid specially printed books and the latest thing in correct lighting, they do their best work. Poor eyesight seems to act as an incentive for them, and we find that many of our best students are enrolled in the sight saving class.

BEHIND A STACK OF BOOKS

in our library you usually find a librarian industriously sorting books, checking books, or reading books. Such an abundance of reading matter startles the mere student, but to librarians it's old stuff. They enjoy making it possible for all of us to read the literature of the world, and they relish the fact that their library is the hang-out of so large a crowd of students.

A TETE A TETE WITH TEACHER

One by one we're called into conference with our division teacher. At these friendly get togethers she checks up on our credits, helps us out of difficulties, or advises us to stick to the straight and narrow path. These chats with teacher clear us up on points that up to now have been a little vague in our minds.

HERE IS SOMETHING EXTRA—EXTRA SPECIAL

ADVICE TO THE BOOKWORM

is handed out by the Adjustment Office. Our troubles are the adjustors' worry and they spend hours trying to find the appropriate cure. By means of tests, they average our mentality, discover our abilities and weaknesses, and then discuss the results with us in a heart to heart talk. This conference with specialists in solving problems often results in a recognition of the cause of our trouble and thence the remedy.

4A REPRESENTATIVE HAS THE FLOOR

He states his views on the needs of the school, but the representative from the 2A division objects. The student assembly becomes interested; listens to the two arguments. Then a heated debate follows, and the whole congress becomes excited over the issue. The president, Charles Grummitt, demands order; a hush falls over the assembly. Suddenly a delegate rises and moves that the issue be made a law; the motion is seconded; then voted upon; it passes by a majority vote; and from then on, we are governed by that amendment.

OFFICE HOURS 8:45-3:00

If you have any business you wish to have taken care of, please see a secretary. Such is the efficient atmosphere which permeates the Student Government office. At a desk, made business-like by a calendar and chart, sit the secretaries, guarding passes and issuing information. Even the government officials cater to them for they hold the key to everything, and largely due to the conscientiousness of these secretaries, all of the Student Government room is still there.

A GOOD TIME IS HAD BY ALL

when we go to one of the Civics Bureau's superb dances or gala parties. The members of this group are the Elsa Maxwells of Hirsch, and with them around, nothing is missing in the way of entertainment. But not all their social instincts are confined to frivolities. They absolutely insist upon our attending benefit movies and are only too glad to fill Christmas baskets. All together, they're the "good angels" of Hirsch.

A SHOW . . A DANCE . . A GAME

Any financial enterprise can be handled by the Finance Bureau. What a selling campaign they put on! Posters decorate every corridor; skits impress assemblies; ace salesmen heckle students. Then, when money begins to pour in, an accountant balances the books; a financier hands over the profits; and your investment is a success.

THEY GO HAND-IN-HAND

THEY ARE THE LAW . . .

not the "nine old men" but the judges and lawyers of Hirsch. Without prestige, the court would have no authority; without ethics, there would be no justice; without standards, there would be no superiority over the students. It is the Bar Association of Hirsch which gives us all this . . . prestige . . . justice . . . and superiority.

say the members of the Safety Bureau. The old-fashioned pedestrian is pushed into the background these days; so he has to look out for himself. The new fangled automobile driver is quite the thing, but he has to keep out of the way of the rest of the traffic. So everyone has his problem, and the best thing he can do is learn the rules, and PLAY SAFE.

SPRING TIME IS CLEAN-UP TIME

Brooms are whisked out; scrub pails filled; fresh paint splashed about; gardens made ready to grow—and Spring is here. But the populace is too apt to be carried away by summer-like breezes or the romances of Spring, so we have a Clean-up Committee. They spread their effective propaganda far and wide, and when in the merry month of May, their work is done, the whole community can "rise and shine."

CLEANUP CAMPAIGN, TOP ROW: R. Carlson, M. Fitch, F. Greenberg. POW 2: F. James, J. Stein, G. Highman, W. McClurg, R. Clapp. ROW 1: J. Harrell, C. Rago, L. Green, M. Forr, M. Birby, J. Peterson, H. Green. SEATED: B. Crane, R. Casey, W. Corbett.

Partly To Associate . . . Partly To Aid

WHERE THE TWAIN DO MEET

The two who have taught us all we know, parents and teachers, join together in the Parent-Teachers Association. Each recognizes the other's skill in managing us, the unpredictable younger generation, and so they get together to compare notes. But usually such hum-drum matters are brushed aside for more pleasurable pastimes, and the P. T. A. proves to be a get together of old friends.

The members enjoy the teas and talks and card parties that are given. They spend a lot of time deciding what dress to wear to the Bunco Party or worrying about the time they trumped their partner's ace; but if the school or students need their help, they brush aside these pleasurable entertainments and do their utmost to aid us in our difficulty.

solemn end to our senior year.. Graduation!

Our last big social as Hirsches—the Prom—our night of nights. Then strains of music swell as we begin our last program and all is over.

THREE CHEERS FOR MISS ALLEN!

Miss Allen, we give you our whole-hearted praise,
 You were our guide through our Senior days.
 When we were good, you always praised us;
 When we were not, your patience amazed us.
 We hope that though the years may pass,
 You will not forget this Senior class.

AND THE SAME TO OUR DIVISION TEACHERS . . .

who knew us better than any class teacher we had. Sometimes they reprimanded us for a "cut" or warned us of a "fourth tardy", but usually they stuck by us through thick and thin. And did we appreciate that!

We remember the fun we've had in high

TO THE SENIOR CLASS!

We may sometimes be noisy and thoughtless, and cause the older folks to throw up their hands in despair and wonder what the younger generation is coming to, but we're really nice people at heart.

HERE THEY ARE . . .

the five people we have chosen to represent us as our officers, namely, Fred Stone as president; Pat Brunell, vice-president; Ruth Thomason, secretary; Morgan Fitch, treasurer; and Bob Bechtolt, social chairman.

Our plans—if we do have plans—must be revealed to the school and the rest of the world in general—the Senior class must be known and talked about.

We sing our song with spirit
... even those of us who can't sing ... making up for the sour notes we hit with the volume we produce.

Another important event in the life of a Senior—the way to a man's (and also a girl's) heart is through his stomach—therefore the class breakfast ranks high in the eyes of a graduate.

HAIL TO HIRSCH

Hail to Hirsch, whom we leave bereft
Sad and sorry we must leave;
You've within us pleasant mem'ries left,
To your ideals we will cleave.

Many happy days with you we've spent,
You've given us joy we can't forget;
When in song we give our feelings vent
You'll know every word's been really meant.

All the sons and daughters of our school
Sing of their loyal devotion;
Alma Mater we've enjoyed your rule,
For us you are the only one.

—Words by William Booth,
Music by Don Callender.

GOODBYE TO HIRSCH

The moment we've long awaited,
Has come to us today,
Tho' we're sorry to leave Hirsch and friends behind,
We have to be on our way
We've all high hopes before us,
So it's now goodbye to Hirsch—we say.

We can always think of Hirsch
As the place where we liked to go,
We worked hard and played hard and liked it so
We now can only say,
It's time now to draw the curtain
On the last act of our high school days.

—Words and Music by Cynthia Walmsley.

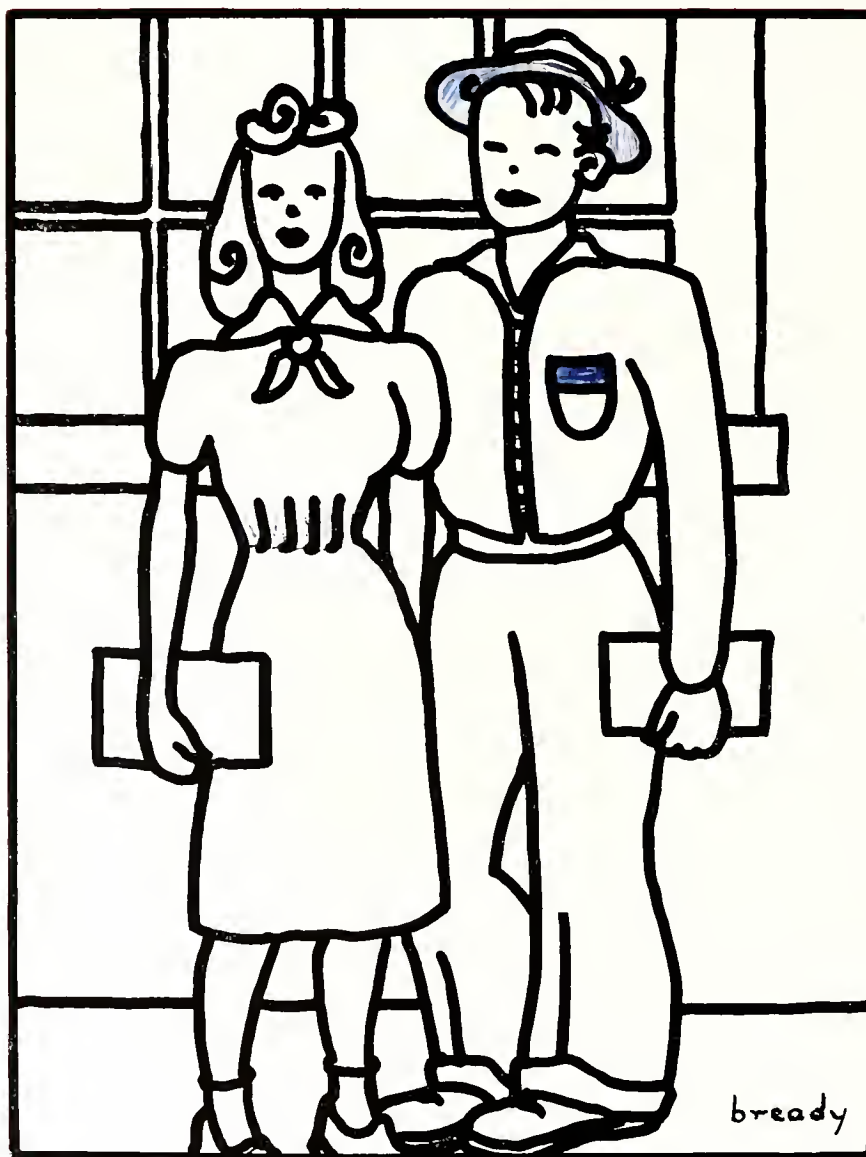

The night we've looked forward to since we were freshmen . . . one that will never come again . . . the happiest . . . and yet the saddest of our life . . . Commencement.

Underclassmen—On their best behavior...

... Acting natural

Jolly folks the Juniors all

WE'RE THE JOLLY JUNIORS,

who know all the trials and tribulations of being social butterflies, from taking the nice, inexpensive walk home in order to save money to take the "best girl" to the Prom . . . to skimping and saving for a "special date" dress.

Taking time off from numerous engagements, we elected officers to lead us merrily on. In the 3A class the leaders of the jolly folks, elected in pandemonium for their pep and personality, are athletic John Wittich, president; friendly Virginia Kohler, his understudy; Janis Graf, their recording angel; Bob Meskill, the monied man, and the very important director of social activities, Charlotte Edman.

We, of the 3B class, are not to be outdone, however. Our frantic campaigning resulted in the election of Thomas Brett, as president; Pat Stone as vice-president; Martha York as secretary; Victor Taylor, as treasurer without a treasury, and Lowell Roberts as the social chairman of a sociable class. Since they're all so nice, you can't help but realize they're a very exceptional group.

Strutting up and down the hall.

EVER SINCE WE BECAME UPPER CLASSMEN . . .

we've tried to uphold the dignity of our predecessors, which was, we admit, a little overwhelming. Now and then we used to lapse into under classmen antics, but it didn't take long before we became quite experienced in the art of being juniors.

We feel that we can brag about the way we managed our first elections, and the way the members of our class stepped right into the activities open to the Juniors. All we have to say is that the seniors had better look to their laurels, or the class of "40" will completely eclipse them.

H. PRELUDE TO A MERRY CHRISTMAS . . .

is the Holly Hop, where we let the spirit of the times get the best of us.

THE PLAY'S THE THING

Whether the purpose be to impress the students or merely to entertain their hearty senses of humor, the play's the thing.

We are so stagestruck here at Hirsch that we haunt the Drama Class and jam the theaters where the students are emoting. We witness all performances with great satisfaction, and pride ourselves that the actors are our proteges. No Hirsch student will ever forget the thrill he got watching the seven dwarfs trying to clean house for Snow White or listening to Hirsch's own radio program at the unearthly hour of ten on Saturday morning.

Our enthusiasm may be attributed to the ability of our players. In one year they learned the art of acting so well that they were invited to produce a series of Shakespearean plays on the radio.

The morning Hirsch went on the air, all ears were glued to the loud speaker; the listeners trembled with anticipation. Over the ether waves came the soft voice of Juliet, the chatter of Puck, and the sighs of Rosalind. The students enacted Shakespeare so well that they took their places among the immortal actors of Hirsch.

We predict great futures for our budding Bernhardt's and Henry Irving's. Meanwhile, we await further developments in Hirsch's Drama Class. Confidentially, it's an Orson Welles production of "Julius Caesar"!

TAMING OF THE SHREW

Petruchio . . . "I tell you it's incredible to believe how much she loves me."

TOP PICTURE: Nina Sittler as Katherine and George West as Petruchio in the "Taming of the Shrew".

MACBETH

Lady Macbeth . . . "Out, damned spot, out I say."

LOWER PICTURE: June Zimmerman as Lady Macbeth, Bernadine Williams as Maid-in-waiting, and Crane McAtee as the Doctor in "Macbeth".

WE BID FOR THE HALL OF FAME

In the Italian room in the Allerton Hotel, high over Michigan Avenue are gathered a hundred or more aspiring young writers . . . from Fenger, from Hyde Park, from mSt. Scholastica, from Marshall . . . from high schools, north, east, south, and west. All are eager to learn the results of the annual Writers' Tournament, conducted by the Chicago Press Guild.

The announcer rises and walks to the table, piled high with prizes. The room becomes hushed the students are tense with excitement; the moment has come!

"First prize for the extemporaneous essay, "bellows the announcer," goes to Myra Estrin from Hirsch High School."

A bow! Applause! Englewood students rub their rabbit's foot for good luck.

"First prize for the submitted poetry, Alice McLaughlin of Hirsch High."

"The next will surely be ours," think those from Farragut.

"First prize for the submitted essay, Myra Estrin, Hirsch."

Students from Morgan Park are wishing . . . hoping . . . praying.

"First Prize for the submitted book report goes to Helene Eichenbaum, Hirsch High School.

"They've got a drag," sighs Thornton Township.

"Winner of the first prize for the submitted short story, Myra Estrin of HIRSCH HIGH SCHOOL."

The room is silent with amazement. The announcer pauses in consternation, glances at the list of prize winners, and adds, "I think that extra credit should be given to the students of Hirsch High School who did so well. They have won nine awards, five of which are first prizes. That is an exceptional record!"

The hall resounds with applause. The Hirsch table rocks with excitement. It is an exceptional record indeed!

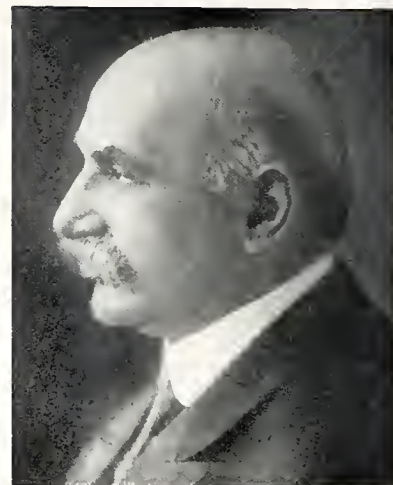

IN THE PICTURES: Helene Eichenbaum, First Prize for Book Report; Myra Estrin, First Prize for Extemporaneous Essay, Submitted Essay, and Submitted Short Story; Alice McLaughlin, First Prize for Submitted Poetry.

SOUND THE BUGLES OF PEACE

Peace was the aim of Dr. Emil Hirsch. To him not only our school is dedicated, but also the ideals of us, the students, who cherish our heritage of peace. We believe, as Dr. Hirsch believed, that peace can accomplish more than war has ever done.

Three days each year we dedicate especially to the ideal of peace. Although we may commemorate wars or celebrate armistices, our objective is always the same—to herald the glories of peace.

DR. EMIL G. HIRSCH

ON MEMORIAL DAY

the Drama Class, through tableaux, recalled memories of our three greatest wars. In the uniform of the respective wars, to the accompaniment of songs sung by the soldiers of that day, the scenes progressed; but underlying its martial exterior, the pathos that underlies the glamour of war assumed its true prominence.

ON HIRSCH DAY

the awards for the best essays on peace were presented. Myra Estrin won the first prize; Betty Lou Fulton the second; and Jean Halferty, third.

"With Banners Flying," a drama exposing the horrors of war, completed the program.

ON ARMISTICE DAY

the Public Speaking Class presented a radio assembly. Two students tuned in on a radio program broadcasted from Arlington Cemetery. The tenor of the message was the futility of war and our ultimate hope for peace.

The bugles of peace now blow over the graves of the dead. May they never call others to war.

National Honor Society

THE SHINING EXAMPLE

A briefcase full of books, thick eyeglasses, and a musty countenance do not signify a member of the National Honor Society. You usually find the esteemed members out cheering at the football games or organizing a Student Government. They're the "umph" behind the school, the guys who go out and give the rest of us a push. When the grades come out, these eminent students are always on top because they have to be smart in all ways to get into the Honor Society.

HEADLINE HIGHLIGHTS

HIRSCH HAS A DICTATOR

Margaret Williams is the dictator around the press room . . . but who wouldn't want to be ruled by Margaret?

THEY ALL MAKE MISTAKES

except Bernadine Williams, the copy editor, who finds the errors of others and sends to the printer a perfect copy.

HIRSCH HERALD MADE ALL AMERICAN,

not the great football team, but the great newspaper. The title of All-American is the reward for five years' hard work to achieve superior rating in editing a newspaper.

THREE CHEERS FOR THE SPORTS EDITOR,

Bob Davidson. He never made a team, but he surely made that sports column.

PAPER! PAPER! GET YOUR PAPER!

from one of the newsboys selling the Hirsch Herald. They may not be working their way through school, but they're trying awfully hard to win the passes to the movies awarded the best salesman.

FEATURING

Ruth De Swarte who gave us those snappy features each week.

IT TAKES PATIENCE

to put a newspaper together. John Dwyer, make-up editor, has charge of fitting together this intricate jig saw puzzle.

THE EDITOR'S SUCCESSOR

is Evarose Karpen who will get to boss the gang next semester.

"PUT IT IN THE PAPER"

is the common cry around school when anything funny or unusual has happened. If there is a Hirsch Herald reporter around, and there usually is, you may be sure that the news will make the issue of the Herald; and when you see your name in that gossip column, you're as good as made.

GOOD REPORTERS ARE MADE, NOT BORN

is proved by examining the records of the journalism class. The students are trained to fill the shoes of "illustrious" former editors of the Hirsch Herald, and to prove that they do this well one need only look at the Hirsch Herald.

IT'S OFF TO WORK WE GO . . .

but instead of digging for diamonds as the dwarfs did, we delve into mountains of paper for the "dummy" and emerge with an editor or two. We stay up all hours of the night wracking our brains and waiting for an inspiration. Amid confusion and noise, orders are flung from one editor to another. We rush down the halls trying to capture originality in order to edit an annual which meets with your approval.

"QUIET, PLEASE, I'M CONFERRING WITH MY EDITOR!"

But with pictures being sorted, write-ups being written, and our photography staff rushing thither and yon with cameras in tow, it is hard to find time to confer. This mad-house has to be supervised by someone, so every year the responsibility of putting the annual together falls upon the suffering sponsors.

"THEY HAUNTED US NIGHT AND DAY"

—but where would the '39 Maroon have been without them? Promises were the bane of each and every salesman, for anyone he approached was sure to bemoan the fact that he had already promised to buy his annual from someone else. Regardless of who was its collector, however, each dollar-fifty went towards the same goal—a bigger and better Maroon.

THE TYPICAL AMERICAN GIRL . . .

has everything . . . good looks . . . gaiety . . . a sense of humor . . . dependability . . . leadership . . . absolutely everything. In other words she's tops to all who know her. Did you ever see so many "typically American" girls in one place—as here?

Junior

LOOK WHAT'S COMING

THAT CERTAIN AGE

when parties and gay social gatherings stimulate lasting friendships among the Junior Girls of Hirsch, is an exciting age. Girls make their social debut when they join the Junior Girls, and just as it does in high society, this means they're up and coming.

The Junior Girls believe in doing whatever they like best, and being especially fond of roller skating, they gave a roller skating party. It was a thrilling, spilling party, to be sure, and the amateurs sailed along with the professionals.

FADS AND FANCIES

are the main topics of discussion, consuming a lot of time any day. The Juniors avidly eat up the current sub-deb columns to find out how they can slay the stag line, achieve an electric personality, and cultivate the glamour of Myrna Loy.

As a result, the Juniors hope to be breath-takingly lovely seniors. Never let it be said, however, that the Juniors are social failures; it's just that when they arrive at the senior stage, they really expect to shine.

Strike Up the Band!

AND YOU REALLY HAVE SOMETHING

for our band is our pride and joy! It can't be judged by the squeals and groans issuing from the band room, for it's that practice that makes them perfect. When the finished band booms across the football field, school spirit rises 100%, or if a program is accompanied by the band, it is sure of success.

THEY PLAY WHILE THEY WORK

but few of us are as fortunate as the Orchestra. Learning to play in unison with twenty other musicians is, however, no snap; so we really must commend the Orchestra for the perfection they achieve. Each player plays the right note at the right time, which results in perfect harmony . . . a good example for the rest of us.

ADVANCED ORCHESTRA (Third): Coralie Breeze, George Canan, Bill Casey, Jimmie Davis, Chris Davison, Lenore Dumas, Bill Fralick, Janet Friedman, John Haran, William Haar, Bill Henberso, Marion Jensen, Robert Jones, Raymond Klopsch, Howard Lang, Stanley LeBoy, Shirley Mains, Jasper Malito, Ray Moore, Richard Nelson, Daniel Paul, Vernon Pelon, Virginia Peterson, Ann Pomy, Shirley Selen, Carlisle Smith, Arne Thomsen, Bert Wessels, Ruth Wilcox, Robert Wolt.

COME ON AND HEAR . . .

Captain Steinbach's beginning bands. Those students who wish to become band masters are well on the road to musical knowledge, as they struggle desperately to master the trombone, violin, or what have you. After they have become experienced musicians, they leave the ranks of beginners and join those of intermediates. From there on, it is only a short step to becoming full fledged maestros.

HIRSCH'S CHORAL CLUB IS SINGING

HEAR YE! HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

"JOSHUA FIT DE BATTLE OB JERICHO AN' DE WALLS CAME A-TUMBLIN' DOWN"

... and so they do, every day in room 141 when the robust male voices blend with the soprano section of the Choral Club. Our "old faithful" can always be depended upon to give programs the "lift" they need to put them over.

CHIPS OFF THE OLD BLOCK . . .

are the members of the Junior Choral Club. They sing loudly and lustily to make sure that Mrs. Kane won't forget them when she picks her next Choral Club. Mrs. Kane, however, considers them potential Choral Club singers, and while they are not quite so well known as the Senior group, they're doing very well.

CHORAL CLUB (Second from Top) ROW THREE: Bolle, Turley, Kimble, Peak, Landes, Liscomb, Bechtolt, Northshield, Powell, Stone, F., West, Thomas, Bulot, Hill, Elghammer, Estrin, Meskill, Bouchard, O'Neal, Krause, Wilken. OFF TO TRY THEIR SKILL

went the sixty special choristers from Hirsch, chosen to represent Chicago at the National Music Contest. They had practiced day after day, three hours a day, just singing, singing, singing. Surely they were as good as the best! It was a joyful, hopeful group of singers, determined to make Hirsch and Chicago proud of them that set off for St. Louis.

The next day, these sixty boys and girls, garbed in maroon, raised their voices in perfect harmony; they sang their very best. The Hirsch Choral Club received the rating of excellent and came home to be welcomed by the praise of all Hirsch.

EVERYBODY SING . . .

This doesn't exactly include everybody at Hirsch, as this is our Girls' Glee Club, exclusively for young ladies. They have sponsored teas, dances, rose sales, and a marionette performance of the opera "Carmen".

But by far their greatest achievement for 1938 was a place in the semi-finals of the city-wide contest for girls' choral groups. Hirsch, represented by only thirty girls, was selected as one of the best of the choirs which competed at Calumet High School.

WHO KNOWS? . . .

Possibly that long sought after Scarlett O'Hara is right here in our school being carefully coached by Miss Sara Niederman along with the rest of the Drama Class. The members learn the fundamentals of acting, putting them to use in such productions as "A Happy Journey" and "Snow White". They spend much time in criticizing the already famous dramatists, in the hope that others will some day be able to criticize them.

KILLJOYS OF THE HALLS

As we swing blithely along the halls, taking our own sweet time (if we're on an errand) we are rudely brought back to reality by a hall guard's curt reminder that we must produce a pass—or else. All hall guards aren't ogres, however. Most of them perform real services such as directing wayward traffic and freshies.

AFTER HOURS

OOOH! I DROPPED A STITCH

is the anguished moan which issues from a room filled with knitting fiends. The reason is simple; a stitch has been dropped. This brands the knitter as a beginner, for an experienced knitter never drops a single stitch.

KNITTING CLUB (Upper Left) TOP ROW: Prendergast, Peppin, Wells, Landes, Neubert, Harrison, Malmfeldt, Buxton, VanHousen, Strain. by those rational members of the Debating Club. Cold and calculating as Mr. Korzen's brain-trusters may seem, while misconstruing a damaging statement of their opponents, however, they are fully able to giggle at the straight, calm faces of their fellow Hirschites a few moments after that crisis has passed.

IN THEIR SPARE TIME

THEY MOW 'EM DOWN . . .

. . . we mean the shrubbery and clinging vines of Hirsch. The Biology Club, by awarding little gold H's to each member who has worked forty hours on the lawn, is definitely improving Hirsch's landscape. Slowly, but surely, the grass is growing a brilliant green under the tender ministrations of these science students.

GIVE HIM THE BIRD!

We're not insulting the Badminton Club. We're just trying to get them started. Once they get going, they're off at a fast and furious pace. Their action is swift as they chase the birdie; their contact is perfect when they hit it. To keep apace with this speedy game, the Badminton Club has only the most fleet-footed members.

AN INTERPRETER, PLEASE

THEY CAME; THEY SAW; THEY CONQUERED

Not the exact words of the immortal Caesar, but instead the history of our own Latin Club, C.V.C. The Latin students came and started this classic organization; they saw how to run an efficient and interesting club; they conquered all of their problems, and now stand crowned with the laurel wreath.

SI VOUS NE COMPRENEZ PAS LE FRANCAIS, NE VENEZ PAS ICI . . .

In other words, if you don't know French, Le Cercle Francais is no place for you. Since the entire meeting is carried on in French, the result is more than one bewildered stare on the part of innocent bystanders. With President Helen Koutsogiannis and Miss Fisher, our sponsor, rattling along, only the seasoned member is able to interpret everything.

But when it comes to having especially good times, the members turn to the old-fashioned American pastime, of bicycling. Palos Park is their favorite haunt, and by no stretch of the imagination can Palos Park be mistaken for Paris.

and swinging into line is the Hirsch Battallion of the Reserve Officers Training Corps, at whose head is Sergeant S. V. Ojala, U.S.A. As we come marching down the field, we review in rapid succession the markers of time and recognition. . The first year—we were unrecognized but determined. The second year—we were the proud possessors of an Honor School rating. In two years' time we have risen high, but it has taken hard work, constant drill, map reading, theory work, and gruelling discipline to put us out in front.

our first drill period, our first praise, our first reprimand, and above all, our first set of stripes. How proud we were of our first uniforms! We really made those buttons shine! Then some of us took part in the crack platoon drill. At the R.O.T.C. Field Day at Soldiers Field on May 27, 1938, we provided more than our part of the exhibitions. SIDESTEPPING HIS TACKLERS . . .

Ransom Woods starts on another of his long runs, aided by the blocking of Hirsch's capable captain, Bob Amedro. Though not very successful, the league games of the season drew large crowds. Hirsch also played two closely contested non-league games.

Hirsch's bids to fame were Jerry St. Clair, who was named on the all-section team, and Johnny Austin, who brilliantly ended the season by polling 120,000 votes to land in fourth place in the city all-star race for center.

Reinforced by the Midgets and captained by Bosco Sabino, the '39 varsity squad is out to beat all previous records set by Hirsch's Huskies.

UP, UP AND UP . . .

goes lanky Fred Stone, veteran cageman, and two more points are chalked up for the Maroons as Hirsch enters the Stagg tournament. Losing six regulars from the brilliant 1937-38 team, Coach Bland has built an almost entirely new squad around Stone, with Art Kunde, Bill Corbett and other returning lettermen making up the base.

Those included in this development are Bernard Rosing, George Coleman and Frank Dial, and the goal of their efforts is the Hyde Park game, which cost the heavies the title last season. So watch out, Hyde Park, for here comes a new heavyweight team loaded with plenty of talent and is bound to overcome any opponent.

STREAKING DOWN THE FLOOR . . .

Bill Thatcher sinks a difficult shot in preparation for a championship year. With the return of lettermen William Thatcher, Howie Casper, and Joe Canna, the lights are looking forward to capturing the crown again for Hirsch.

The regular seasonal encounters got under way following several hard-fought practice games, which were started off with a dual victory over Lindblom. Following this came victories for the lights over Farragut and Tilden, two teams which will not be played during the regular sectional fight.

Howie Casper's graduation in January will deal Hirsch a serious loss, but with such cagers as Brigel, Kulvin and Adler remaining, Coach Bland has little to worry about.

A SPLASH AND A FLASH!

CRACK! IT'S A HIT . . .

and Captain Frank Dial bangs out his nth hit of the 1938 season to lead the team with a .368 average, nosing out Tom Weiss, who finished with .357.

With sluggers such as these, and pitching like that of Tony Mussachio, the team's leading hurler, Hirsch landed in fourth spot in the section with five wins and four losses. The climax of the season was Hirsch's 7-6 victory over Fenger, which was aided by a six run rally in the final inning.

The main loss to the '39 team will be the graduation of the team's leading hitters and outfielders, Captain Dial, Weiss, Chuch Grummitt and Bud James. An entire infield is returning in Art Kunde, Harry Crowley, Bob Amedro, Bill Thatcher and Joe Canna. Coach C. O. Applegran will build the team around this material, and this next season should produce a team of which Hirsch can be proud.

CUTTING THE WAVES . . .

with their rivals left struggling in their wake, Hirsch's star "fish," Sunny Sutton and Bob DeLong, pull themselves out of the water, victors again in their respective heats.

In the city preliminaries, Bob DeLong qualified in the one hundred yard backstroke, finishing in 1.09. The medley team, composed of Sunny Sutton doing the crawl, Bob DeLong backstroking, and Jack Reubelt swimming the breast stroke, qualified with 1.51. Ralph Anderson displayed good form in his diving, and the relay team, made up of B. Anderson, R. Peterson, R. Anderson, R. Johnson, R. Olson and C. Smith, helped add to the total score.

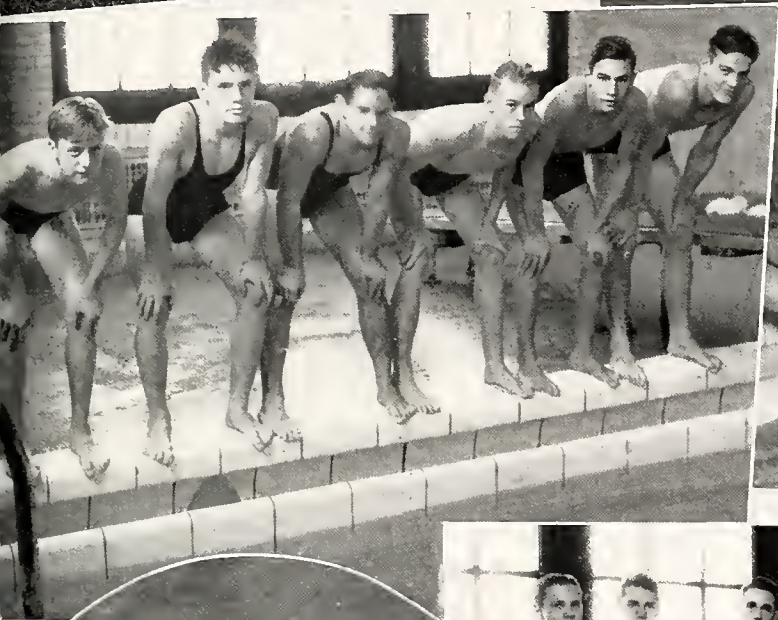

Others who entered were Howard Silsdorf, Carl Smith in the 220 yard free style, and Roger Johnson and Bob Olson in the 100 yard free style. They did not qualify, but it is hoped that they will do better in dual meets. Interest is now turned toward the city finals, with hopes for Hirsch to bring home some of the trophies.

THEY SCORE EVERY TIME

SPLINTERING WOOD . . .

echoes down the alleys as Hirsch's twin bowling leagues hum with action. Both the Legion and Cheltenham bowlers aim to place on the 1939 A.B.C. team. Besides this, victory awards and places on the Hirsch team are sought after by veterans of the sport. Last spring several meetings with South Side school teams were held, and more are scheduled for this season.

LEGION BOWLING LEAGUE (Upper Left) TOP ROW: J. Aranoff, B. Longshore, T. Brett, J. Landes, J. Ernst, G. Erkert, S. Young, F. Crane, M. Barancik, B. Davidson. ROW 1: A. Sirk, J. Rice, N. Anderson, H. Weil, J. Dunn, A. Saper, J. Graves, R. Jones, W. Lippman.

CHELtenham BOWLING LEAGUE (Upper Right) TOP ROW: R. Casey, G. Coppin, F. Gustafson, Coach Bland, W. Roesen, R. Kulvin, J. Piepenkotter, D. Willis. ROW 1: G. Coleman, W. Corbett, E. Bouchard, J. Wittich, J. Burke, A. Nichols, W. Olson, R. Wayne, G. Excell, H. Goldberg, W. Townsley, M. Marks.

CHALK UP SIX MORE . . .

as behind perfect interference, Captain Tony Reda scores another touchdown for the "Mighty Midgets." Bud Wilschke did a notable job in coaching the Midgets in their initial appearance in the prep sporting world. Their only setback was dealt them at the hands of the Calumet sophomores, 6-0. They went on to trounce the varsity of St. Francis de Salles, 23-0, in their first encounter; then duplicated their victory, 13-0.

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE FOOTBALL (Center Left) TOP ROW: W. Bergman, H. Walberg, E. Johnson, R. Kitzsteiner, C. Massio, R. Johnson, M. Hendrie, P. McHenry. ROW 2: R. Conners, C. Hamilton, W. McClure, H. Phillips, S. Whitmore, P. Chimino, D. Comstock, Coach Wilschke. ROW 1: R. Olson, W. Roberts, T. Fitzpatrick, Capt. Reda, W. Lundgren, R. Prendergast.

goes the ball from George Coleman's fingers, and two more points are marked up. Repeated performances of this action resulted in victory for the basketball team of Miss Hauta's division.

Marching steadily onward, this fighting squad defeated all opposition, and, at the end of the intramural tourney, the boys were in possession of the championship. Their final victory was over Mrs. Parker's cagers. Giving invaluable aid, and largely responsible for the capture of the tournament crown, were Bob DeLong and Jack Each.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS (Center Right): C. Wotell, R. DeLong, G. Coleman, T. Connolly, R. Held, J. Each.

"WE WANT A HOMER" . . .

chants the crowd as Mike Orlando steps to the plate. He glances at the outfield, slowly swinging his bat. Then, the pitch, a hit, and the filled bases are cleared again.

Mrs. DeRoque's nine took the upper hand winning the championship in the intramural softball tournament. Mike's constant repetition of his fence-topping antics was largely responsible for the clinching of the title. Added to this were the fine performances of Chuck Grummitt and Dave Soderlund.

with their characteristic strut, the aloof air that they invariably lose when they meet together to talk about the latest in football and basketball tactics. They're the greatest objects of admiration in Hirsch, the selected few who wear the emblems denoting good sportsmanship, accurate thinking, and lots of good hard work. Those large maroon "H's" on their masculine chests distinguish them as "lettermen."

CHEER THEM ON!!

ROARS FROM THE GRAND- STANDS . . .

greet the ears of the late-comers to Hirsch's pigskin battles. With the cheerleaders out in front heading the rooting of the team's supporters, they draw from our depths "rah! rah's" that give our team new hope when its morale has been weakened. This year the yell-bringers were capably led by Marvin Marks, who aided in producing some new vocal calisthenics from the throngs of loyal boosters.

CHEERLEADERS (Upper Right) TOP ROW: M. Marks, P. Olson, H. Goldberg. BOTTOM ROW: E. Harrison, J. Peterson, J. Jerome.

breaking away, heading for that far turn. They're out to demonstrate their endurance and give glory to their school. This year was the first time Hirsch entered a team in this event, and in spite of their lack of experience, these boys did well and placed Hirsch among the leaders. From a field of approximately two hundred and fifty, one of Hirsch's marathoners, Robert Olson, came in nineteenth to place just within the money, and earned his much longed-for letter.

CROSS COUNTRY ACTION SHOT (Center): R. Olson, L. Richmond, C. Reyher, W. Miller.

marked Hirsch's trackmen as they opened the '38 season with an imposing list of individual winners. Few knew of Hirsch's team until J. Konek broke the 100 yard city record and Harry Steurmer finished high in the state mile finals.

And then, when the inexperienced group of runners won over Parker in a triangular meet, and gave Tilden a hard fight, interest was aroused throughout Hirschland. For this, a large amount of credit goes to Mr. Korzen, who, in his own spare time, advised and supported the team in all of their meets.

TRACK TEAM (Lower) TOP ROW: J. Durham, J. Landes, W. Fink, C. Reyher, C. Hawking, R. Hemstreet, T. Brett, W. Sherwood, A. Liscomb. ROW 2: R. Trovillion, S. Quick, R. White, W. Johnston, G. Erkert, F. Koller, M. Finlayson, J. Ernst, L. Richmond. ROW 1: S. Fileshe, J. Konek, J. Davlantis, J. Connery, G. Gaddick, O. Gleeson, W. Miller.
ACTION SHOT (Upper Left): J. Davlantis, H. Varellas, W. Johnson, J. Konek, A. Liscomb, R. Hemstreet, R. Olson, J. Landes, C. Hawking, R. Trovillion.

IT MUST BE FUN

GROUND, STICK, GROUND STICK, GROUND STICK, SHOOT!

A swish of sticks, a flash of a ball, and the fight is on. A player emerges from a pile of scrambling arms and legs, dribbling the ball before her. It is intercepted and raced back toward the opposite goal. Now you have the ball now you haven't; that's field hockey, the fastest game of all.

WHAT THE CUBS OVER-LOOKED

was the wonderful baseball material here at Hirsch in the Girls' Team. There are no nationally famous stars on the team, but the girls surely can swing a bat or heave a ball. They don't play for money; they don't play for fame; but they play for the enjoyment received from participating in the most American of all sports.

BASEBALL

(Center Right)

"SINK THAT BASKET"

screams the excited mob! Not that the Girls' Basketball Team needs any encouragement. On the contrary, this famed quintet has a habit of making baskets all too often, according to their opponents. No one can keep pace with their speedy dribbling; nothing can daunt their fancy sharp-shooting. They're the best to be had in the way of a basketball team.

BASKETBALL

(Lower Left)

FRONT: Irene Shapiro (standing), Betty Peck, Anne Boyle, Margaret Withers. BACK: Betty Cohrs, Pat Stone, Eleanor Evans.

AFTER THE BALL IS OVER

the net, propelled by the lusty swing of a Volleyball Team member, a fast, furious game is on. Whiff! Bim! Bam! Back and forth flies the ball, as each athlete issues her special swat. The ball sustains all the injuries in this vigorous game, and it may be considered a graduate of the school of hard knocks.
